

Process

1. Pick an audience.
2. Pick a mood.
3. Choose 3-4 words.
4. Write a sentence from first person point of view. (I, we, us, our, my)
5. Rewrite that sentence from 2nd person point of view. (You, yours)
- 6 Rewrite it again from 3rd person point of view. (He, she, they, them, their)

Nov 21-8:17 AM

A Moody Sentence

1. Audience: a 7-year-old girl
  2. Mood: happy
  3. Words: sandcastle, beach, ice cream, grandpa
- Sentence:
4. After we built a sandcastle on the beach, a fantastic turreted sandcastle, grandpa bought us all ice cream cones.
  5. After you built a sandcastle on the beach, a fantastic turreted sandcastle, grandpa bought you all ice cream cones.
  6. After they built a sandcastle on the beach, a fantastic turreted sandcastle, grandpa bought them all ice cream cones.

Nov 21-8:19 AM

Higher Process

Do the process by yourself and very neatly and accurately create your own set of sentences.

Highest Process

Make a publishable version: perfect English and extraordinarily neat and attractive. (Illustrated or Emailed)

Nov 21-8:20 AM