

A Biography

A. Bibliographic entry:

B. Response

*You will not necessarily find all the answers in your book.
Fill in as much information as is available in your book.*

1. Who is the subject of the biography?
2. Where was the person born?
3. When was the person born?
4. Who were the person's parents?
5. What information can you find about the parents?
6. Where did the person grow up?
7. What did the person enjoy doing as a child?
8. What did the person think about as a child?
9. What was the person's personality like as a child?
10. What significant events happened to this person when young?
11. How was this person unlike other people of the same age?
12. Describe this person's education.
13. What did this person do as a young adult?
14. How was this person different than others as an adult?
15. Why do you think this person was able to see the world differently than others?
16. What difference has this person made to our world?
17. What else did you learn about this person?
18. What qualities – virtues on the Bridge of Character – do you want to emulate?
19. How do you think you will change if you adopt these qualities?
20. What is the most important piece of information you learned from this book? Why is it important?